JAMES MCHUTCHISON, PRESIDENT
J. EDGAR MCHUTCHISON, VICE PRES
W. E. MICHEL, SECRETARY
M. J. BERKERY, TREASURER

Mr. M. R. Newman,

NEW YORK

January 16th, 1930.

Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:-

THE BUYER AND SELLER AGREES THAT THE SELLER GIVES NO WARRANTY, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, AS TO THE PRODUCTIVENESS OF THE STOCK HEREBY OFFERED, AND ITS RETENTION FOR TEN DAYS AFTER RECEIPT BY THE BUYER WITHOUT COMPLAINT IN WRITING, CONSTITUTES A DEFINITE ACCEPTANCE THEREOF BY THE BUYER. ALL GROWING STOCK IS OFFERED SUBJECT TO CROP.

Since the stock market break 3 months ago our business shows an increase in sales of about 15% over the same period in 1928. The prosperity of the horticultural trade in general directly affects our sales, so we consider this increase a dependable indication of trade conditions. It confirms past history and shows you again that nothing short of a severe financial or industrial panic can seriously menace the horticultural industry. The moral is:- "Be a booster" - and don't let the calamity howlers and pessimists shake your confidence in the future. It is poor psychology to talk or think of anything but good times.

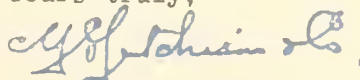

If you fail to produce the usual stocks of flowers and plants for the holidays and for your daily trade, your competitor who prepared will rake in your dollars. Certainly you cannot expect to make anything yourself without something to sell.

You can have plenty of good stock to sell later, if you buy dependable raw materials. With the general crop-shortages in bulbs - Lilies, T.R. Begonias and Gloxinias etc - prices for the finished article should advance substantially. There must be flowers for Easter, Mother's Day, Memorial Day, and every other event from funerals to weddings.

So - "Let's go", - "Faint heart ne'er won fair Lady". The demand will be there with an open pocketbook. Will you do your share to satisfy it? Will you reap the profits to which you are entitled or will Mr. Competitor get his, and yours too?

We enclose a list quoting on high-grade stock of certain specialties for immediate delivery. May we especially direct your attention to the last page and invite your inquiries for the items of exceptional value suggested for Spring shipment. Use the enclosed envelope for your orders or inquiries.

Yours truly,

62.61

IMMEDIATE SHIPMENT

THE BUYER AND SELLER AGREES THAT THE SELLER GIVES NO WARRANTY, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, AS TO THE PRODUCTIVENESS OF THE STOCK HEREBY OFFERED, AND ITS RETENTION FOR TEN DAYS AFTER RECEIPT BY THE BUYER WITHOUT COMPLAINT IN WRITING, CONSTITUTES A DEFINITE ACCEPTANCE THEREOF BY THE BUYER. ALL GROWING STOCK IS OFFERED, SUBJECT TO CROP.

This stock is first class in all respects. All items can be shipped at once F.O.B. New York unless stated otherwise. Prices are as low as can be quoted on such high-grade quality. Can you expect to have good finished products to sell later unless you buy dependable raw materials now - while still available?
